

CarInsurance.com Reveals Cheapest Cars to Insure in Every State

Consumers should factor in insurance costs when determining the total cost of car ownership.

Foster City, CA – October 31, 2019 – CarInsurance.com just completed an analysis of insurance rates for more than 3,000 new model cars and determined the lowest cost vehicles to insure in each state.

Fifteen cars are on top as the cheapest to insure and about half of those have the lowest insurance costs in multiple states. The biggest winners in the study include:

- Fiat 500X Pop, ranking among the most cost-effective in 15 states
- Subaru Outback 2.5i grabbed second place with eight states
- Mazda CX 3 Sport, Jeep Wrangler Sport and Honda Odyssey LX minivan all tied for third with five states each

This analysis includes the cheapest 2019 model vehicles in each state and reports on the five lowest-cost cars to insure in every state. The report also explains other factors considered by insurers when setting rates so consumers can change what they can control in order to pay the lowest premiums possible.

“Maine had the cheapest rate among the cars with lowest insurance costs, with the Mazda CX-3 Sport averaging only $695 for annual insurance,” observes Michelle Megna, editorial director for CarInsurance.com. “Michigan had the highest cost for a vehicle in our study, with the Ford F-150, costing $2,051 per year.”
